WHITE DOVE OF PEACE HOVERS OVER ALL

England and Russia Are to Refer Differences to Arbitration.

London, Oct. 29.—All danger of war between Russia and Great Britain has been averted, and a settlement of the points in dispute regarding the attack by the Russian squadron on the British trawlers have been referred to an international commission under the Hague convention.

Premier Balfour, speaking at a meeting of national union of conservative clubs at Southampton last night broke the silence which had brought the people of the United Kingdom to a condition almost desperate irritation and had given rise to misconceptions which Balfour tonight himself exposed. The Russian ambassador, said Balfour, has authorized a statement to the following effect:

The Russian government, on hearing of the North Sea incident, at once expressed its profound regret and also promised the most liberal compensation. The government has ordered the detention at Vigo of that part of the fleet which was concerned in the incident, in order that the naval authorities might ascertain what officers were responsible for it; that those officers and any material witnesses would not proceed on the voyage to the far east, that an inquiry would be instituted into the facts by an international commission as provided by the Hague convention. That, Balfour interpolated, had nothing to do with arbitration; it was the constitution of an international commission in order to find out the facts and any person found guilty would be tried and punished adequately. The Russian government under took that precautions would be taken to guard against a recurrence of such incidents. Special instructions on this subject would be issued.

Apology and compensation having already been offered nothing remains but to determine which account is correct, Rojstvensky's or the trawlers'. Balfour plainly said that Thursday evening Russia and Great Britain seemed to be on the brink of war, and yet gave frankest praise to the attitude preserved throughout by the emperor and the Russian government. While the premier was unable to praise the pacific attitude of the government too highly, he bitterly assailed Rojstvensky's report, declaring it was an insult to Great Britain as a neutral nation and ridiculed its probability.

Balfour's speech was followed by quieting of the intense excitement which prevailed all day and the conviction is that there will be no further difficulties.

ENGLAND IS RELIEVED.

London, Oct. 29.—Except for a few "war-at-any-price" editors, there is a general feeling of intense relief and almost jubilation today over the peaceful outcome of the dispute between England and Russia over the firing by the Russian Baltic fleet on the British fishermen. The outcome is regarded as a triumph for British diplomacy, which on one hand secures a moderate English aspect, and on the other has secured Russian concessions.

RUSSIANS NOT PLEASED.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 29.—The naval and grand ducal parties here are feeling sore over the concessions made by Russia to England. Count Lamsdorff and the czar are generally given full credit for the settlement.

FLEET TO START AGAIN.

Vigo, Oct. 29.—Several officers of the Russian fleet came ashore this morning and received two bulky dispatches for Admiral Rojstvensky. It is said some of the Russian ships might leave immediately.

GETTING READY TO COAL.

Tangier, Oct. 29.—Since morning four Russian torpedo destroyers and four colliers have entered harbor.

RUSSIANS WERE READY.

Vigo, Oct. 29.—In an interview granted your correspondent today one of the officers of Admiral Rojstvensky's fleet made the statement that previous to the news of a settlement of the Anglo-Russian dispute, the vessels of the Baltic fleet made every preparation to engage the British fleets in battle.

Japanese 170. The Russians retreated across Shakh river.

AT PORT ARTHUR.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 29.—Alarmist reports from foreign sources of alleged critical condition of the Port Arthur garrison attack and of a renewal of the Japanese attack upon that stronghold have created considerable popular anxiety here.

The government simply states that it is without direct advice, though it maintains a firm belief that the garrison will be able to hold out.

JUDGE PARKER MAKES SO MANY FOOLISH STATEMENTS, HE WILL BE IGNORED.

Washington, Oct. 29.—President Roosevelt has authorized the statement that he will make no reply to the Monday speech of Judge Parker, in which the latter charged that the trusts had practically made an alliance with the Republican National Campaign Committee to control the floating vote in the doubtful states by corrupt use of money. The president stated that the heads of the different departments of the campaign committee are able to make their own defense, and that a statement from him was unnecessary.

RURAL SERVICE EXTENDED.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Rural free delivery service will be established December 1 at Hanson, Hopkins county, with one carrier. The route is 22 miles long, containing a population of 650.

Robert Ohampion was appointed postmaster at Berry Ferry, Livingston county, vice John F. Hamby, resigned.

THE OPENING OF A HANDSOME STORE

Wallerstein Brothers' Formal Opening Monday Oct. 31.

The New Establishment Is One of the Handsomest in the Entire South.

OCCASION WILL BE GALA ONE

Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock Wallerstein Brothers will formally throw open their remodeled building with a grand reception to their friends. The event marks an advanced step in the building of modern establishments in Paducah and gives the city one of the handsomest stores to be found anywhere.

The building takes the place of a very handsome one the Messrs. Wallerstein have occupied for years, one that would have sufficed for the average merchant. But not so with this firm. Every year of the thirty-six years they have been in business has seen evidence of their enterprise, their intention to keep abreast of the times, and this new store is a fitting crowning effort.

The building is three stories high with a frontage of 50 feet. The entire front and 15 feet of the Third street side is given over to very handsome Crane patent clamped show-windows with an entrance in the center. The finishing touch of the front is the handsome, all glass octagon vestibule case, the base of which, as well as the show-windows proper, is Georgia marble. The floor of this case is also marble, while the ceiling is of mirrors. It is truly a diamond among other precious stones. By a profuse use of prisms the store is made as light as day.

The side walls of the ground floor are done in red with a yellow border, and the ceiling is a very handsome work, in metal, the color scheme being very attractive. The fixtures are in keeping with the magnificent store. They are of solid, quartered oak.

On the first floor are the men's and youths' clothing, men's furnishings and hat departments.

On the second floor are the children's clothing and furnishing, overcoats, trunk, suit-case and tailoring departments.

The third floor is used as a stock room and gives one the impression of a jobbing house from the enormous and complete line of goods carried in stock.

At the rear of the first floor are the business offices, the wrapping department, the cashier, and private offices of the members of the firm, each a model of perfection and arrangement.

The electric elevator is a thing of beauty and certainly worthy of mention.

It is of the Otis patent, push button type, an invention which has been on the market only a very few years. It is controlled entirely by buttons, requires no attendant, and seems human in its operation. It most assuredly is worth any one's time to see.

Wallerstein Brothers take rank as one of the most enterprising firms in the south. Starting in 1868 with a very small room under the Richmond House, each year has seen the firm march steadily and surely along the highway to success and affluence. A retrospection of their journey must be a pleasure to the members of the firm today, as they see their latest achievement, but Monday evening will be their night. They have issued a formal invitation through these columns to their friends, and that means every man, woman and child in the city, and most of the adjoining counties in Kentucky, Southern Illinois, and Tennessee, to come and see their new home, and it goes without saying that the magnificent store will be crowded to its doors on the occasion. An interesting musical program has been arranged with Deal's orchestra as the feature, and souvenirs for both the ladies and gentlemen will be presented to all callers.

The musical program is as follows: Program for Wallerstein's opening, Oct. 31, 1904. Deal's band and orchestra.

1.—March—"Smiles."—Herbert L. Wallerstein.

2.—Overture—"Tancréd."—Rossini.

3.—Intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana."—Mascagni.

4.—Waltz—"Rendezvous."—Donizetti.

5.—Sextet from "Lucia."—Donizetti.

6.—Selections from "Trovatore."—Verdi.

7.—Waltzes—"Kentucky."—Herbert L. Wallerstein.

8.—Celebrated Serenade—Titi.

9.—Excerpts from "The Prince of Pilsen."—Luders.

10.—March Two Step—"Yankee Doodle."—Herbert L. Wallerstein.

These numbers will be interspersed with such popular songs, intermezzos, ragtimes, etc., as may be suggested or requested.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MR. C. A. DIEMER, JR.

Helped Build the Paducah Division of the N. C. & St. L.

For a Great Many Years He Had Been a Popular Employee of the Road.

FUNERAL AT FAYETTEVILLE

Mr. C. A. Diemer, Jr., resident engineer on the Eastland extension of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railway, was found dead in his car at Eastland yesterday. The immediate cause of his death is not known, there being no one with him at the time, but it was not a great surprise to his friends, as he has been in poor health for several years. He was apparently well the day before his demise, and looking after his work as usual.

Mr. Diemer began work with the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railway as roadman on the construction of the Duck River Valley (narrow gauge) railroad from Petersburg to Fayetteville in 1890. He was subsequently made assistant engineer on construction of the McMinnville branch from McMinnville to Sparta. He aided in building the Paducah branch of the N. C. & St. L., and was well known here.

He had been almost continually employed by the road up to the time of his death, having had charge of nearly all of its construction of new lines as resident engineer. He was resident engineer on the construction of the Clarksville & Princeton line and also on the construction of the Brushy Mountain line, which runs to the state mines. He had just completed the track-laying on the extension from DeRosette to Eastland, and was engaged in supervising the surfacing of the track and building of the yards. He was the eldest son of Dr. C. A. Diemer of Fayetteville, Tenn., and was 46 years old at the time of his death. He was not married.

In addition to his ability as an engineer he was an excellent telegraph operator, and was well known all over the line and always welcome in every office. His remains were taken to Fayetteville, where the funeral will take place at a time to be hereafter announced.

ONE BURNED TO DEATH.

St. Louis, Oct. 29.—By the explosion of a lamp this morning Mrs. Mary Delabar, wife of a pioneer, was burned to death, and her daughter was seriously injured.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION KILLS MANY MINERS

Colorado Has Another Mine Horror—Two Fatally Hurt in Illinois.

Trinidad, Col., Oct. 29.—A terrible explosion occurred at mine No. 3, of the Rocky Mountain Fuel and Iron Co., at Terrio, forty miles west of Trinidad yesterday afternoon and the number of dead is variously placed at between thirty and sixty men.

The mine works eighty men and it is believed that at least thirty were in the mine when the explosion occurred. Company officials and doctors immediately went to the mine and hundreds of men from adjacent camps tried to enter. Deadly fumes overcame the rescuers frequently, but their places are immediately taken by others. It is not thought possible that any one in the mine can escape death if they are not all dead already.

The explosions is supposed to be caused by dust.

An eye witness says that immediately following the explosion heavy timbers were shot out of the two air shafts and broken into splinters, and that it rained rocks, broken timbers and all kinds of debris for fully a minute and many people were injured by being struck with these missiles.

There is absolutely no hope for at least twenty-three of the men caught in the explosion. There is no possibility of any of the bodies being recovered for several days. The mine is an absolute wreck, and the damage will reach a quarter of a million. The latest report is that the death list may not exceed twenty-three.

TWO IN ILLINOIS.

Harrisburg, Ill., Oct. 29.—Eight men were injured by the explosion of gas in Egyptian mine No. 2, here last evening. Superintendent Walter Pankey and Cassie Cummins, a miner, will die.

WEEKS NEWS IN BUSINESS WORLD

Clearings this week, $571,444

Same week last year, 510,669

Increase, 60,775

Business with the local wholesaler is very good, especially in drygoods, groceries and whiskey. Collections, too, are good. Manufacturing concerns report lots of orders on the books and the outlook for future business splendid. Of the general situation R. G. Dun & Co. say:

Mild weather early in the week checked the distribution of seasonable goods but had a permanent value in facilitating the harvesting of cotton and late grain. Subsequently the temperature fell, restoring the retail trade in wearing apparel, fuel and similar products to greater activity than was experienced a year ago. Building operations are active, strengthening the markets for lumber and materials. Manufacturing plants are making steady gains, particularly in leading industries and it is significant that a reluctance to do business has shifted from buyers to sellers, eliminating largely concessions in prices that prevented stability.

Labor is unusually well employed, judging by official computation of the unions. Railway earnings in three weeks of October 9.2 per cent larger than in 1903.

Retail trade is good, but the retailers would welcome more cooler weather.

Tax payers are beginning to come in, and pay the last half of their year's taxes. The penalty goes on December 1st, and only one more month remains for them to settle their taxes before the penalty will be added. The property owners are inclined to wait until the last week and it is not until then that the real rush will begin.

The tobacco business is falling off. The Louisville Herald says of the Louisville market: "The receipts of leaf tobacco at the tobacco warehouses in Louisville have been the smallest this week of any week in the history of the leaf tobacco business in this city. During the past two days but thirty-five hogsheds have been received and the receipts for the entire week will not exceed 300 hogsheds.

"The present time is just between seasons when the receipts are always light, but for the past few weeks they have been exceptionally light. This is accounted for by tobacco men by the fact that the high price for burley has had the effect of rushing all that grade of tobacco to the market early in the season."

A Hopkinsville dispatch says:

"The inspector's report for the local tobacco market this week shows a continued falling off in amount of the offerings. The report is as follows: Receipts for the week, 70 hogsheds; receipts for the year, 14,029 hogsheds; sales for the week, 165 hogsheds; sales for the year, 12,950 hogsheds. Prices ranged as follows: Good leaf, $6 to $8; medium leaf, $5 to $6; common leaf, $4 to $5; lugs, $3 to $4."

Saloon Keepers to Strike.

Pana, Ill., Oct. 29.—After November 1 there will be a strike among the saloon keepers of Pana. The license expires at that time and the saloon men of the city have unanimously agreed to take out no license under the new ordinance recently passed by the city council, which goes into effect then. The ordinance provides that if a saloon keeper violates the law by selling liquor on Sunday or after hours his license will be revoked and he shall lose the money that he has paid for the same.

Mr. McCarley formerly resided in Fulton and resigned some time ago on account of his health, but having sufficiently recovered to do active service, he was given the position at Memphis as above stated. He is one of the best claim agents in the entire southern territory.

REV. PINKERTON

WILL PREACH HIS LAST SERMON IN PADUCAH TOMORROW.

Tomorrow will be the Rev. W. H. Pinkerton's last Sunday as pastor of the First Christian church, his resignation taking effect November 1. He has been here eleven years and is identified with all that has been for good in the city. He is greatly beloved by his own congregation and is universally popular. The congregation of his church cordially invites and hopes that all Mr. Pinkerton's friends will come out to these last services. His going is a loss to the town.

FINALE ENSEMBLE, ACT II, A GIRL FROM DIXIE, AT THE KENTUCKY THEATER, WEDNESDAY NIGHT, NOVEMBER 2.

THEATRICAL NOTES

Miss Genevieve Day, who assumes the principal role in Sam S. Shubert's presentation of "A Girl from Dixie," which is to be presented at The Kentucky next Wednesday night, is in reality a real "Dixie" girl having been born in Tamarack, Md., and passed most of her life below the Mason and Dixon line. A peculiar coincidence happened when Mr. Harry B. Smith, the author of the piece selected Miss Day's home as the seat of action for this play. Mr. Smith spent several weeks in Tamarack selecting data and ideas to instill into his libretto. While there he met Miss Day, and immediately became infatuated with the idea that she would be a typical heroine around whom to write, so, all unknown to Miss Day, he made a study of her ways and actions as being typical southern girl. The idea then occurred to him to try and induce Miss Day to take part in the piece. One evening he broached the subject to her, and to his surprise and delight discovered that she had been on the stage for three seasons, and was simply spending her vacation at her old home. Mr. Smith immediately offered her an engagement as the "Dixie Girl." Miss Day accepted. That his selection was a wise one has been proved time and again by the cordial reception and praise which both the press and public have accorded Miss Day. One enthusiastic writer remarked that "she was as sweet as the perfume of the magnolia." This beautiful comparison did not escape the astute eye of the manager and ever since he has used it as a caption in all of his advertising. Musical critics applauded Miss Day's musical voice, while the dramatic writers applauded her acting as of the highest order. "You'll like this girl from 'Dixie,'" said another prominent New York critic. This prophecy also proved true. In an interview Miss Day, while being praised for her rendition of the part answered naively, "Why it is very simple, all I had to do was to act natural, almost any southern girl could do the same thing." During the run of the piece in New York Miss Day was a guest at a dinner given by the Daughters of the Confederacy, who afterwards attend the theater in a body.

A fine show so far in the musical comedy line will be "The Liberty Belles" with its Radium ballet, pink pajama girl and 25 of the prettiest young girls ever seen on our local stage. This attraction will be seen at The Kentucky tonight. A number of comedians, dancers and singers prominent in the profession are amongst the list of names in the cast. This production has won fame as a unique and original musical comedy. Girls from "San Toy," "Foxy Quiller," "Sleeping Beauty," "The Chaperones," "The Strollers," "Belle of New York," "Blue Beard" girls. The novelty of the theme of the play and its treatment is manifested on the very rise of the curtain where is displayed the pretty scene in the dormitory of a girls' seminary. It is a bit of school girl life which is not down on the curriculum and which is forbidden to every masculine eye. Here Miss Pink Pajamas and her night-robed friends hold sway. A confusion of night-gowned, skylarking girls in a midnight school revel. That is the picture. It is indeed a marvel of stage management. One least touch of suggestiveness would spoil it, but instead, throughout it all, is permeated the fragrance of innocent girlhood, the bubbling spirit of girlish fun. In the company are Lottie Staveley, Anne Stuart, Nonie Torrence, Mable Kipp, Grace Boss, Dorothy Hutchison, Kathleen Warner, Peppy Leach,

PILLOW FIGHT IN DORMITORY SCENE IN LIBERTY BELLES, TONIGHT AT THE KENTUCKY.

Wm. H. Conley, Frank Farrington and Joseph Vance. The scenery, costumes (which are said to be very costly) and stage settings are the same as were used with this attraction at the Madison Square theatre, New York, during its long run in that city. The radium ballet is an additional feature which has only lately been added. The demand for seats has been quite brisk.

"McFadden's Flats," a farce comedy, played a fair-sized crowd last night at The Kentucky. The company is composed of clever people and the costuming is above the average.

Today at noon Hanlon's Superba, one of the biggest extravaganzas on the road, composed of over 38 principals passed through the city en route to Louisville from Memphis. A portion of the company was given dinner at the depot lunch-stand. The word was telegraphed here last night to prepare for the company and the management of the depot lunch-room had the entire force of cooks and waiters working all the morning in preparation of the coming company.

NEWS OF THE RIVERS.

There are 15,000,000 bushels of coal in the Monongahela pools above Pittsburgh ready to come out on the first good rise.

The Queen City is still running in the Memphis and Arkansas City trade.

The Fawn is at Owensboro. She cannot reach the ways at Madison or Paducah to repair.

The river after being on a stand nearly a week, fell one tenth last night and is now two-tenths of a foot on the gauge.

There is only one boat to go out today, and that is the Henry Harley, due to leave this evening for Tennessee river. The smaller boats make short trips, but even they are irregular.

The Pittsburgh rivers are about stationary and the prospects for a good rise are growing rather meager.

The Memphis News says: "Inspectors Brazie and Walts have been very much gratified to find that the life-saving appliances on the various steamers so far inspected by them under the recent order from the department at Washington come up to the requirements of the law fully, except in one or two instances, when some fire hose was found of not sufficient strength to withstand the prescribed pressure of 100 pounds to the square inch. This hose was replaced, however, with hose of the proper strength. Up to the present time inspections have been completed on the following boats: R. E. Lee, James Lee, Alda, Delia and City of St. Joseph."

The Pilgrimage.

Under our comrade's name
Lo, this legend!
Gone on a Pilgrimage
Into a far country.

Never a word to say
If he will come again,
Treading his buoyant way
Over the paths of men.

Never a clue to guide
Whither his footsteps fall;
Back from the parting tide
Never an answering call.

But there shall dawn a time
We shall be pilgrims, too;
Then we shall know the elme,
Then we shall find the clue.

And they will grave for us
This same legendry—
Gone on a Pilgrimage
Into a far country.

MR. ABRAHAM L. WEIL.

Society has not only been very quiet this week, but it has been greatly saddened by the passing from its midst of one who not only always shared in its pleasures, but was ever a potent factor in making pleasure for others. So accustomed is this page to having the name of Mr. Abraham L. Weil recorded upon it that without it, it will seem strangely unfamiliar, for until he succumbed to the illness, borne so heroically, no social occasion was ever considered complete without his genial presence.

But equally with the pleasures did he share the sorrows of his friends, those in trouble knew him as well as those in joy, and he was as untiring in his effort to halve the sorrows as to double the joys; and not for his friends alone, but for the community where he lived and labored. Many here yet remember, and will never forget, how, during the awful days of the Galena disaster, he made the launch "Brookhill," the scene of so many of his gay pleasure parties, a veritable messenger of mercy in the interest of the stricken and suffering. It was then, if he had received it, he could have had the highest civic honor bestowed unanimously by his own people, but he never sought to use his popularity to further any selfish ends, commercial or otherwise.

Thoughtful, generous, unassuming, he died as he had lived, and made a friend of Death, as he ever had of Life. "Write him as one who loved his fellow-men."

The couple will make their home at 913 Trimble street.

TO MARRY MONDAY.

The marriage of Miss Lilly August Morrison to the Rev. Archie C. Holder Ph. D., of Mayfield, will take place on Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Trimble street Methodist church. Bishop H. C. Morrison, of New Orleans, an uncle of the bride, will perform the ceremony.

Miss Clara Moore, a cousin of the bride will attend her, and Dr. Holder will be accompanied by Rev. W. A. Swift, of Covington, Tenn. The ushers are Mr. Frank Moore, Mr. Hume Ogilvie, Mr. Ben Billings, Mr. John Kennedy, and Mr. Kelly Kennedy. The bride will wear a white cloth tailor suit.

Miss Morrison is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Morrison, of North Twelfth street, and is a young lady of attractive personality and much charm. Dr. Holder is a talented young minister in the Memphis Conference of the M. E. church, South, and was at one time a missionary to Cuba. He is stationed near Mayfield and the couple will make that place their home for the present.

SWELL MEMPHIS WEDDING.

A very elaborate and beautiful ceremony was the wedding of Miss Mary Latham Peters and Dr. Frank Graham, which took place at the Latham home—stead in Memphis, Tenn., on Wednesday evening. The prominence of the families made it one of the leading society events of the season, and the Commercial Appeal says in part:

"The Latham typical southern home was charmingly decorated with plants and rare exotics and the wide verandah was made into a music room where a full complement of musicians played the wedding music. The ceremony took place in the lofty gold and white-drawing room in a charming bower of pink and green, the color motifs of the wedding relieved by touches of white. The great crystal mirror formed the background for the wedding tableau, and was intertwined with vines and love-knots, and banked with ferns. A floral wedding bell of white and green suspended by love knots of ribbon was overhead, and the bower was lighted by all white tapers in golden holders.

"Radiating from the top of the bower to the white and gold Roman arch in the center of the room, were pink satin traceries terminating in great pink satin bows. In the cluster of the arch was a wishbone of pink and white roses—the talisman—of good luck for the new life to come.

"The breakfast room of the home—stead was used as the punch room. In the center of a veritable floral bower was an immense grape-wreathed punch bowl, surrounded by a border of purple and gold grapes, resting on beds of fern leaves.

"The dining room was in perfect keeping with the beauty and art in the other rooms. The table was covered with white satin, and overdressed with an exquisite Duchesse lace cover. The center piece was a huge cut glass Flora, supporting a great cluster of white chrysanthemums, the flower of the wedding. It was lighted by white tapers, golden candelabra, pink and green shades. The bon bons were pink and white. The refreshments were elegant and appropriate, served in perfect style and cuisine."

There were four matrons of honor, and Miss Martha Leech of this city, fittingly described as "one of Kentucky's loveliest girls," was the maid of honor. The matrons and maid of honor wore gowns of French silk net over tulle and carried pink chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Graham is very attractive and is popular here where she has been the guest of Miss Leech. Her mother Mrs. Isaac Peters has on several occasions visited Mrs. Armour Gardner.

Mr. Saunders A. Fowler of the city, was also, a guest at this wedding.

A PRETTY RECEPTION.

A very delightful reception was held at the rectory of Grace Episcopal church on Kentucky avenue on Tuesday evening, when the Rev. and Mrs. D. C. Wright were "at home" to the members of the congregation and their friends from 8 to 11. The rooms were charmingly decorated with plants and flowers, white and green being the color motif. The receiving party stood in the parlor and library. Mr. and Mrs. Wright and Miss Elise Wright of Urbana, Ohio, were assisted in receiving by: Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kirkland, Mr. and Mrs. Muscoe Burnett, Mrs. Charles Richardson, Mrs. Ned Baker, Mrs. Campbell Flournoy, Miss Ethel Morrow, Miss Faith Langstaff, Mr. E. P. Noble and Mr. Will Bradshaw.

In the dining room Miss Nellie Kirkland and Miss Sophie Kirkland presided, assisted by Misses Elizabeth Kirkland and Dorothy Langstaff. The table was prettily decorated in white and green, red candles and shades in silver and gold adding an effective touch of color. Delightful ices in red, white and chocolate, and cakes were served.

Many called during the evening and welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Wright to their new home. They made a most charming impression on everyone.

SANS SOUCI CLUB.

The Sans Souci club was charmingly entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Harris Rankin at her home on Broadway. There were six tables at cards. The club prize was won by Mrs. John W. Scott, and the visitor's prize was captured by Mrs. Frank Boyd.

A pretty two-course luncheon was served after the game.

Miss Clara Park was chosen a member of the club to fill the place of Miss Irene Scott who leaves shortly to spend the winter out west.

The club members present were: Mesdames Will Gilbert, John Scott, Will Minnich, Allen Ashcraft, Misses Margorie Crumbaugh, Margaret Park, Mildred Terrell, Hattie Terrell, Irene Scott, Carlisle Sowell, Ethel Morrow, Hallie Hisey, Clara Thompson, Faith Langstaff, Myrtle Greer, Susan Jorgenson.

BRIDE POPULAR HERE.

Miss Maud Harrison, of Clarksville, Tenn., well-known and popular in this city, where she often visited her aunt, Mrs. Gus Singleton, was married in Nashville, Tenn., on Thursday to Mr. W. Wood, Jr., of the Memphis Electrical Supply Co. The wedding was to have been in November, but it was decided to have it very quietly in Nashville at this time, owing to recent deaths in the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood will live in Memphis, Tenn.

CHARITY CLUB.

The Charity club met on Friday morning at the Palmer and organized for active work. Miss Faith Langstaff was elected president, Mrs. Roy McKinney, vice-president; Miss Ethel Morrow, secretary, and Miss Lizzie Sinnott, treasurer. The six district chairmen are: Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. Will Minnich, Mrs. Fannie Allard, Mrs. John W. Keiler, Miss Emma Reed, and Miss Myrtle Decker. The Ladies of the Macabees gave an enjoyable dance at the Knights of Pythias hall on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Roder, Mrs. Pixler, Mrs. McCann and Mrs. Spencer were the hostesses of the occasion.

A PRE-HALLOWEEN PARTY.

The Halloween party under the auspices of the Newell society and Junior Epworth League of the Broadway Methodist church, last night at the home of Miss Mildred Soule was a most enjoyable occasion. The lawn was gay with camp-fires and fortune-tellers' tents. Spooks received the guests at the gate and acted as escort. Miss Carrie Ham and Miss Claire St. John were very clever in the role of fortune-tellers. An interesting musical and literary program was given in-doors.

The marriage of Miss Mary C. Donni-gan and Mr. James F. Hollich was solemnized with a nuptial high mass at the St. Francis de Sales Catholic church

THAT LETTER.

The letter written by President Roosevelt, of which so much fuss was made by Senator Culberson, is the strongest possible proof of the absolute candor and honesty of President Roosevelt in his dealings with Colombia and Panama. This letter was in the possession of Senator Culberson and other democratic senators at the time the treaty with Panama was ratified last winter.

Of this letter, which has been issued by the republican national committee as a campaign document, Senator Lodge says:

"Two months or more after the revolution, and while the debate upon the Panama treaty was going on in the senate, an officer of the senate told me that the democratic senators were searching for a letter which they understood had been written to Dr. Shaw, which had appeared somewhere, and which, they understood, convicted the president of complicity in fomenting the revolution. I replied that I knew the letter they meant, that it had been published, that it was the exact reverse of what they thought, but that if they wanted it I would gladly get them a copy of it. I went to the White House, got a copy of this letter to Dr. Shaw, and with full permission took it to the senate and gave it to Senator Gorman. A day or two after, Senator Gorman asked me if I had any objection to his giving it to Senator Culberson. I said not the least; that the letter had been published and they could do what they liked with it. The Panama treaty went to a vote with that letter to Dr. Shaw in the possession of democratic senators."

The letter is as follows:

(Personal.)

White House,

Washington, Oct. 10, 1903.

* My Dear Dr. Shaw: I enclose you, purely for your own information, a copy of a letter of September 5, from our Minister to Colombia. I think it might interest you to see that there was absolutely not the slightest chance of securing by treaty any more than we endeavored to secure. The alternatives were to go to Nicaragua, against the advice of the great majority of competent engineers—some of the most competent saying that we had better have no canal at this time than go there—or else to take the territory by force without any attempt at getting a treaty. I cast aside the proposition made at this time to foment the secession of Panama. Whatever other governments can do, the United States cannot go into the securing by such underhand means of the cession. Privately, I freely say to you that I should be delighted if Panama were an independent state, or if it made itself so at this moment; but for me to say so publicly would amount to an instigation of a revolt, and therefore I cannot say it. With great regards,

Sincerely yours,

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

THE WORLD REPENTS.

At last, though most tardily, the New York World has found its way to the mourners' bench.

The following is what the New York Tribune has to say of this inveterate and flagrant sinner, in an editorial in its last issue:

"Confession is good for the soul. But not the kind of confession with which the New York World, grudgingly yielded to a pressure which it could no longer resist, tried to conciliate decent public sentiment yesterday morning. At last, after forty-nine days of utter silence, the World admits that its elaborate account of two secret interviews at which it declared President Roosevelt and Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan to have sealed a compact of corruption and betrayal was WHOLLY FALSE. It says that it does this 'sadly' and 'with the deepest contrition,' but what follows takes all the honest meaning out of those words. 'The too credulous reporter who allowed himself to be imposed upon has been severely disciplined.' Poor devil! But what has happened to his superiors, who eagerly snatched at the manifest libel and indorsed it on the editorial page?"

How different from what Mr. Bryan said a short time ago about nothing inducing him to vote for a "gold-bug," is his telegram to Judge Parker last night: "I am paying an installment on a debt I owe the American people!"

By getting out and asking them to vote for a man and ticket that were put out by political grafters; for a man who stands for what Mr. Bryan has denounced for eight years, and who hasn't the humbleness to publicly admit the errors in his public statements regarding the administration in the Philippines.

England would doubtless have liked to get into real trouble with Russia. There is no use talking about universal peace as long as every nation is so eager to do what England did—get hot in the collar and go to war without waiting to find out the real facts. There is no nation that will not fight. As long as it is in the blood of the people there is little hope of abolishing war.

Mr. Cleveland has decided not to speak. It is not stated in whose interest this decision is made, whether that of Judge Parker, or Mr. Cleveland himself.

Broadway is now in a bad condition from the excavations, but it is evident to anyone who will go out and watch the work, that it will not be that way long.

The administration has wasted a whole year, so far as the street reconstruction is concerned, without getting anything but four blocks built, and these have just been started.

Mr. Dabney Shobe, of Morley, Mo., was here yesterday in a guest of Attorney Cecil Reed, en route home from Benton.

POPULAR OFFICIAL GOES TO REWARD

Coroner Peal Succumbs to Long Illness.

Was a Native of Trigg County, and Had Lived Here Fourteen Years.

FUNERAL TOMORROW AT 2 P. M.

Coroner William R. Peal, after a lingering illness, died at 11:30 o'clock last night at his home 624 Husbands street from stomach and lung trouble. Coroner Peal's health began failing early in the year, and he had been unable to leave his room for some time, and had several times been reported dead within the past week.

The deceased was born in 1840 in Trigg county, and lived there many years, being in the flour mill business for a time, and serving several years as deputy sheriff and one term of four years as sheriff of Trigg. He came to Paducah in 1890 and was for several years on the police force. He was appointed coroner when the late George Phelps died, and was subsequently elected to fill the vacancy.

He was married early in life to Miss Lucy Childress, of Trigg, who survives him, and several children were born to them, but only one is living, Mrs. Minnie Andrews, of St. Louis, who has been here several weeks.

Coroner Peal leaves a sister, Mrs. Beards, of this county, and several brothers and half brothers, Messrs. G. Peal, a tobacconist of the city, and Harvey Peal, of Wickliffe, and Jap Peal, of Ballard county.

Coroner Peal was a careful, genial and accommodating officer, and had friends all over Southwest Kentucky. He was known as "Daddy" Peal, and to know him was to like him. He was a large, powerful looking man, and his heart was in proportion to his size. He probably didn't have an enemy anywhere, and his death will bring grief to many homes.

As coroner of the county he was ready at any time to discharge his duty, and was one of the most conscientious and painstaking officers who ever held the office. He performed his duties until unable to leave his home a few weeks ago, and had the respect of everybody officially as well as personally.

The deceased was a Mason and was a member of the "1840 club." He was also a member of the Methodist church, and in his death Paducah loses a popular and an honest citizen.

The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Broad way Methodist church, services by Rev. T. J. Newell. The interment will be at Oak Grove.

COURT NEWS

Only a Few Matters Came up in Circuit Court.

In Police Court the Cases Were Few—In Other Courts.

A MANDAMUS SUIT.

The question whether or not parts of Marshall county are "dry" is to come up again. Recently Special Judge J. C. Flournoy, of Paducah, knocked out the local option elections in Marshall county on a technicality, and County Clerk Henson refuses to recognize it as final. Mr. John Counts, of Paducah, for the Hessig Company, was granted a license at Gilbertsville by the town trustees, but Clerk Henson, at Benton, declined to grant a state license and the $150 was left in his office by Mr. Counts. The bondsmen were then offered before the county judge, who declined to accept them because the clerk had issued no license. Attorneys Oliver & Oliver left today for Benton to institute mandamus proceedings against the clerk to force him to issue the state license.

In the case of Nona Darnell against the Paducah City Railway Company, the defendant filed a motion with reasons for a new trial.

She was injured at Ninth and Jackson streets in a car collision and sued for $1,000 but got only $400. The verdict was returned yesterday.

Attorneys Eaton & Drake conducted all the cases which grew out of this accident for the plaintiffs. They were three, Geneva Lam and Nona and Eva Darnell. The former and latter got judgments for $75 each.

George Johnson, who sued the Paducah Laundry Company, for $10,000 damages for being scalded in a vat of water, and whose case was dismissed on peremptory instructions, this morning filed a motion with reasons for a new trial.

An order dismissing the case of D. A. Gore against J. W. Riglesberger and brother, was filed this morning.

The case of the Fraternal Construction Company against the Jackson Foundry & Machine Co. was tried this morning and a verdict returned for the defendant.

The company built a fraternity building in Kevil and part of it collapsed, and they claimed it was due to the iron front made by the defendant. They sued for $1,500 and Jackson brought in a counter claim for $94.35 for work and material for the front. The verdict returned gave Jackson his claim and awarded the plaintiff no damages.

This afternoon the case of Eveline P. Lyons, against the Mergenthaler-Horion Basket Machine Company, is being tried. The girl got an arm crushed in a piece of machinery in plant and sues for $5,000 damages. There is a great deal of evidence to hear.

DEEDS.

J. B. Green deeds to J. M. Ried, for $925, property in the county.

POLICE COURT.

Jimmie Hale, colored, who has been lodging a warrant for presenting a pistol at another negro named Walker since last May, was arrested this morning and arraigned before Judge Sanders.

Hale thought the police would soon forget but found that they had very good memories and when he saw them making for him this morning, began to dodge in and out houses near Ninth and Clark street. He was finally landed and as the witnesses were not on hand this morning, the case was continued over until Monday.

Charles McManus and Thomas Evans, white, were arrested this morning for entering a car of merchandise in the Illinois Central yards. They were arraigned on two charges, that of entering the car and also for breaking the seal. The men claimed they did enter the car but found the seal broken. The case was continued until Monday.

Frederick Haaf, white, was fined $1 and costs for being drunk.

Fred Thompson, white, was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

A man named Murphy was fined $1 and costs for being drunk.

ETERNAL REST FOR AN HONORED MAN

Attorney Sam Houston Died at 6:35 a. m.

His Health Had Been Failing For the Past Several Months.

PRACTICED LAW SINCE 1859

Paducah sustained another irreparable loss today when Hon. Samuel Houston, for many years an honored member of the local bar and a citizen of intellect and accomplishment, passed from life at 6:35 o'clock at his home, 233 North Fifth street, from dropsy and a complication of diseases. Mr. Houston's health began failing several months ago, and for the past four or five months he had been unable to work.

A few weeks ago he went to Dawson, but was not greatly improved. Since then he had been able to leave his room occasionally, and day before yesterday was able to be down town.

Yesterday his condition became worse, and last night it was evident that his hours were numbered, and he quietly sank to sleep, breathing his last at the time named.

Mr. Houston was one of the best known of the older citizens, and while he was of quiet, reserved demeanor, he was a genial, friendly companion to those who knew him well.

He was born in Paducah on November 25, 1835, having nearly reached his sixty-sixth year, and a son of Eli and Sarah Houston, who were natives of Ohio. The family settled in Paducah in 1834, but moved to Memphis, Tenn., in 1845.

There Mr. Eli Houston was a contractor and builder, and superintendent of public works in the government navy yards for several years.

From Memphis the family moved to Sacramento, Cal., but returned to Kentucky in 1854. Shortly afterwards they again went west, and the elder Houston died in Nebraska in 1860.

The family returned and Mrs. Houston died in Paducah three years later. Mr. Samuel Houston began studying law soon after the family's return from the west, in 1857, and two years later was admitted to the bar. He at once became one of the most brilliant and popular attorneys in Southwest Kentucky, and in 1862 was elected city attorney of Paducah, holding six terms, or ten years.

Mr. Houston was a Republican in politics, and had never sought an office, although he had allowed the use of his name as a candidate on a few occasions.

He was a man who did not show his age, and his acute mental faculties were unimpaired to the last. Mr. Houston had made a success in his profession, and enjoyed the respect and good will of all his colleagues.

He was a constitutional rather than a criminal lawyer, and was a man who quietly went his way without making any effort to get before the public.

The deceased was a brother of the late Colonel H. H. Houston, scholar and writer. Both were finely educated, and did much for the good of the city.

There survive Mr. Houston a sister, Miss Margaret Houston, and a niece, Miss Pauline Houston who both live at his home here. The deceased was never married, and has no near relatives except the above two. He has a cousin, Mrs. Amanda Wilhelm, and the late Mrs. H. H. Stevens and the late Mr. Nelson Soule were cousins.

The deceased was not a member of any secret society. The funeral will take place at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow from the residence, services by Rev. W. E. Cave, internment at Oak Grove cemetery. All friends are invited without further notice.

The active pallbearers will be Judge J. L. Bethshares, T. J. Atkins, Ell Guthrie, John Burnett, C. R. Hall, H. H. Loving, Z. H. Bryant and James E. Wilhelm. Honorary pallbearers: W. D. Greer, V. O. Sweatman, George Rock, E. W. Bagby, Judge L. D. Husbands, J. G. Miller, T. L. Crice and J. R. Paryear.

The plumbing was done by E. D. Hannan and he is much pleased with such a complimentary report.

GOOD ATTENDANCE IN THE SCHOOLS

The Average Will be Quite Large for October.

The Attendance is Now Averaging 95 Per Cent. of the Enrollment.

IS AN EXCELLENT START

Prof. C. M. Lieb, superintendent of the Paducah schools, thinks the attendance this month will surpass that of September by a great deal, although there is no way of definitely getting at the figures of the present month until all reports from principals and teachers are in.

During the first month of school, September, when school opened near the middle of the month, the actual attendance fell a great deal lower than the enrollment, which is the case everywhere. The enrollment for September was white, 3,219 and 911 colored, making a total of 3,130. The actual attendance of whites was 1978 and colored 754, making a total of 2,732 attending. The percent of attendance for white and colored pupils during September was 95. The white girls averaged 96 and the colored girls 95 in attendance, the white boys 95 and the colored boys 95. The average of the white girls is one per cent higher than the colored girls, but this is due to the fraction being greater than half, but according to the figures of the superintendent in working out the total attendance, the white and colored is even.

This has been a very good start for the schools and the work seems to be interesting the pupils a great deal more this year than last. The teachers are working with more interest, adopting methods of teaching heretofore not used in the schools and gradually the service is being bettered and likewise the work of the pupils.

W. E. Cave, of the First Presbyterian church, officiating.

The wedding was originally set for an earlier date, but on account of the precarious illness and death of the groom's father, it was deferred, and on account of the bereavement in his family, the marriage this evening will be a quiet affair, with only a few friends and relatives present.

A HEALTHY LIVER, A HAPPY MAN

The largest, and, now conceded, the most important gland in the human body is the liver. When the liver is "out of order" the blood becomes impure, the kidneys are affected and Bright's disease and diabetes are invited, constipation is induced through disorders of the stomach, and the whole system "gets out of tune," followed by chronic and sometimes incurable disorders unless the right corrective is administered.

The right corrective in all cases is Dr. Thacker's Liver and Blood Syrup, the only preparation on the market in which is scientifically combined all the best known remedies for diseases of the liver and kidneys and purifying the blood.

For sale by all druggists, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sample bottle free. Address: Thacker's Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

One house they pass many times, looking at it with more eager curiosity and concern. This building is even less pretentious than its fellows, but one who observes it long will have noted that those who pass in and out of its door lend it a peculiar distinction. They come in velvet instead of cloth, their sleeves droop with lace. They wear powdered hair and diamond buckles and for the most part carry dress swords.

The house is occupied as a shop, and the silver plate on the door bears the name of "James Randolph." It is the headquarters of the Virginia delegations.

To Henry, chafing in his Virginia harness, how slowly the ball had rolled among the conventions! How halting went the leaders! Messengers riding, posthaste brought him the news from Philadelphia.

Congress had recommended that the several colonies form distinct governments for themselves. And even to this the delegates of New York and Pennsylvania had loud objection. Henry gnashed his teeth in the convention at Williamsburg, and on May 15 a resolution was passed directing the Virginia delegates in Philadelphia to "declare the united colonies free an independent states."

A significant word! Richard Henry Lee followed in June with his resolution for independence.

But alas for human failing! Many of the delegates, Dickinson, Morris, Livingston, were men of property, and the possession of property enlarges the camp of caution. They cried for delay. The older Quakers, men of peace had set their faces and their faith against rebellion.

New York was sick and water. There had been the failure of the Canadian expedition, and besides, the province had its exposed harbor and the Indian raids on its frontier to think of. The Pennsylvania delegation refused to vote on separation and left their seats in anger. Maryland had few grievances.

And what of New Jersey? There was Toryism entrenched. Its royal governor, the son of the benevolent faced patriot, Benjamin Franklin, went breathing fire against the Whigs. Not till he had been shipped to Connecticut in irons, not till congress had sent three of its members to argue, to plead, to storm, did its assembly declare for freedom.

Think not that those who hesitated were not men of honor, jealous for the welfare of their country. Not every one believed George III. another such despot, as Philip II. of Spain or the bloody minded man the rebels illiberally called him. The storm was high on the horizon. And it is the part of wisdom to count well the cost of desperate ventures. Against the colonies was pitted the mistress of the seas—a king, innumerable battalions, armament, navies, money and the prestige of hereditary possession. The colonies stood alone.

There were those who, like Henry, whose clear eye saw the future as well as divination, planned faith upon Gallie's enmity to England and looked for a sign of aid. But the months came and went without its appearance. Now the Third congress was sitting, and France was silent. Granted a defiance to Great Britain, the outcome was doubtful—how doubtful five red years of smoke and blood were to demonstrate.

As the pendulum vibrated a British fleet in the Delaware brought the war within hearing, and Lord Howe how to off Sandy Hook with all his army. The congress was, after all, a miniature of the country. It held a Tory party who awaited some disaster to become dangerous. It held faint hearts who craved, dependent ones who predicted ruin and brave hearts that dared a struggle they believed would be uncertain.

On such a field for twenty-five long days a determined battle was fought. It ended at last, and one evening Thomas Jefferson of Virginia betook himself to a little house back of an oblong green, where lived Dr. Franklin, and wrote the first draft of the Declaration of Independence.

There comes a time in the history of every great movement when it must go forward or die. Lethargy breeds reaction. The fierce fight for a Declaration had marked this point now. In the three days since the vote the opposition had gathered its shattered forces. There were now mutterings, and the little Virginian delegation in the shop of Mr. James Randolph on High street knew that the defiance which was to be offered on the morrow, if it were to be signed at all, must be signed quickly.

So out of a humid morning grew the afternoon of the 3d of July for Philadelphia. It came in heat, with a brazen sky.

Opposite Mr. Randolph's shop on the same evening Joseph Galloway, the lawyer, walking slowly, paused and looked across the street. He was thick-set and middle aged, with a smooth, effy face and restless eyes.

He had lacked Whig patriotism in the first congress. The second would have none of him. And yet he had earlier led the popular party against the proprietary. Such strange overturnings the new idea of freedom was bringing about. The fierce Tory rancor which had made of this man at first "the defender of the prerogative" was to convert him later into a spy, a refugee and a sour pensioner of George III.

Now, there was the open hatred of a bitter Tory in the look Joseph Galloway cast upon the little shop.

"Good day, Mordant," he said in greeting to a rotund merchant Quaker who joined him. "I see you also looking. What think you our Virginia hot bloods will brew next in their den yonder?"

The Quaker frowned. "I love them not," he answered. "What saith the Scriptures? For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds."

"Gentlemen of birth and wealth, forsooth," continued Galloway angrily, "and yet prating like the veriest clods of independence and brotherhood! Whose was the bill to separate from Great Britain? Richard Henry Lee's. And who has written the Declaration that is to be thrust beneath the delegates' noses tomorrow? Thomas Jefferson. These Virginians! Would we had never heard of Virginia before we came to this!"

GOOD SPIRITS.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass state could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred and one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c; regular bottles 75c. For sale by DuBois, Kolb & Co.

BARRED BY LAW

THE RENAULT CLAIMS WILL NOT AMOUNT TO ANYTHING.

Mr. George Jackson, the well known mattress dealer, who is a descendant of some of the old French settlers says that none of the old French and Spanish claims, such as that of the Renault heirs for property worth four hundred million dollars, will ever amount to anything. Some of his relatives years ago fought similar claims through many courts, and finally the old French and Spanish claims became so numerous and troublesome to the government that congress, according to Mr. Jackson, about the time of General Grant's administration, enacted a law wiping out all such claims then existing or that might hereafter exist. Mr. Jackson says that this effectually bars all such claims as those of the Renault descendants.

INTERESTING FACTS.

For Nearly Every Man, Woman and Child.

A short time ago we published an article recommending to our readers the new discovery for the cure of Dyspepsia, called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the claims then made regarding the wonderful curative properties of the remedy have been abundantly sustained by the facts. People who were cautious about trying new remedies advertised in the newspapers and were finally induced to give Stuart's Dyspepsit Tablets a trial were surprised and delighted at the results. In many cases a single package costing but 50 cents at any drug store made a complete cure and in every instance the most beneficial results were reported. From a hundred or more received we have space to publish only a few of the latest, but assure our readers we receive so many commendatory letters that we shall publish each week a fresh list of genuine, uncollected testimonials and never publish the same one twice.

From James Yemmelier, La Crosse, Wis.: Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are doing me more good than anything I ever tried and I was so pleased at results that I gave away several boxes to my friends who have also had the same benefits.

From Jacob Anthony, Portmurray, New Jersey: I have taken Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with the best results. I had Dyspepsia for 6 years and had taken a great deal of medicine, but the Tablets seem to take right a hold and I feel good. I am a farmer and lime burner and I heartily recommend to everyone who has any trouble with his stomach to use these Tablets.

From Mrs. M. K. West, Preston, Minn.: I have received surprisingly good effects from using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I gave one-half of my last box to a friend who also suffered from indigestion and she had the same good results.

From Mrs. Agnes K. Ralston, Cadillac, Mich.: I have been taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I am very much better, and feel very grateful for the great benefit I have received in so short a time.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a certain cure for all forms of indigestion. They are not claimed to be a cure-all, but are prepared for stomach trouble only, and physicians and druggists everywhere recommend them to all persons suffering from Nervous Dyspepsia, sour or acid stomach, heartburn, bloating or wind on stomach and similar disorders.

DR. BOYD'S PARENTS OVERCOME BY GAS

The Pipe Leaked Into Their Room at St. Louis.

His Father's Condition Is Reported Critical But His Mother Will Recover.

DR. BOYD LEFT LAST NIGHT

Dr. Frank Boyd last night received the news of a sad accident to his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boyd, of McLeansboro, Ill., who are in St. Louis attending the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd had been at St. Louis several days and were stopping at a private dwelling. Thursday night when the housekeeper called them and received no response, became suspicious that something had gone wrong, especially when she smelled gas so strongly.

She opened the door to the room and found Mr. and Mrs. Boyd unconscious and the room full of gas. The gas jet was leaking and the occupants of the room had evidently gone to sleep before it was noticed.

Mr. Boyd is in a precarious condition and has never regained consciousness. Mrs. Boyd was not so seriously affected as her husband and is reported better.

Dr. Frank Boyd received the news over the long distance telephone and left last night at 7:30 for St. Louis to be at his parent's bedside.

Dr. Boyd this morning telephoned his wife from St. Louis that he found his father somewhat improved, and semi-conscious, but still in a precarious condition, but his mother is much better, and is not thought to be in any serious danger.

REPORTED ROBBERY.

J. T. Vaughan, white, a railroad man from Merchant, Tenn., reported this morning to Lieutenant Frank Harlan, that while sitting in the Red Fox saloon Thursday night he was robbed of $165 and a watch valued at $110. He wanted the police to "pull the house" saying he had hunted the watch since he lost it, and could not find a trace of it. The police are investigating the case.

KENTUCKY NEWS TOLD IN PARAGRAPHS

A BIG LAND DEAL.

Mayfield, Ky., Oct. 29.—Several enterprising Mayfield men have closed a deal for about 2,000 acres of fine timbered land near Benoit, Bolivar county, Mississippi. Those interested in this deal are, Judge D. B. Stanfield and son, W. B. Stanfield, C. L. Carey, S. F. Key, W. L. Key, J. E. McKeel, of this city, and Dr. W. P. McKeel, of Wingo. This body of land was bought for $15 per acre.

CAPTAIN PARR'S ESTATE.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 29.—The Fidelity Trust Company, as executor and trustee under the will of Captain Daniel G. Parr, has filed suit to ascertain whether or not it shall pay over to the trustee of "Parr's Rest" the amount bequeathed to it by Captain Parr. The company says that the trustees have been organized in accordance with the provisions set forth in the will, and that it knows no reason why it should not hand over the funds in its possession. The total amount is estimated at $600,000, though the Rest is ultimately to receive all the estate, which is valued at a million or more. The Rest is for aged and indigent women.

Captain Parr was a former river man who accumulated a large fortune. The defendants in this suit are the heirs. A contest is considered probable.

PAYS A PART.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 29.—The Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of Kentucky, which concluded its annual session in Franklin Thursday appropriated $1,250 to the Louisville Biennial Association to aid in liquidating its indebtedness, this being the sum total due from the lodges throughout the state on the assessment made last year for the benefit of the Biennial Association. On Monday night, during a great rush of business, a memorial from the Biennial Association, setting forth its receipts and expense, was presented, but laid on the table, and was called from the table Thursday morning and the sum claimed as due from the Grand Lodge, $1,250, was appropriated and directed to be paid at once, the sums due from the lodges to be collected later. This entirely disposes of every obligation from the Grand Lodge.

The grand chancellor-elect nominated William E. Riley, of Mystic Lodge, this city, for the three-year term as grand tribune, and this nomination was immediately and unanimously confirmed by the grand lodge.

SUES RAILROAD.

Mayfield, Ky., Oct. 29.—Mrs. Ben Rutherford of Mayfield has instituted suit against the Illinois Central Railroad Company for damages in the sum of $5,000 for injuries sustained in Fulton by the I. C. cars about July 10, 1904.

Mrs. Rutherford was in Fulton walking on the railroad track going from the depot to the hotel, when she was knocked down and hurt by the switch engine. She is a very old lady and has been laid up since the accident and is just able to be out of bed.

KILLED WITH A HAMMER.

Hindman, Ky., Oct. 29.—John Henry Neece, while under the influence of whiskey, struck Miss Pearl Perkins in the top of the head with a large hammer and killed her instantly. Miss Perkins was the daughter of Leonard Perkins, and was one of the prettiest girls in the county. Neece married Miss Perkins' sister about eighteen months ago. Before committing this deed he broke up everything he had in his house and threw it out in the yard, and Miss Pearl begged and pleaded with him to not do it, but he grabbed the hammer and killed her.

BUUGLARS SENTENCED.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 29.—In the circuit court Polly Jackson was given one year in the penitentiary for burglary. Georgia Jackson was given two years for a similar offense. The parties are colored. Polly Jackson is seventy years old.

NEXT CONFEDERATE REUNION.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 29.—The twentieth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans will be held in Louisville on June 6, 7 and 8. Colonel Bennett H. Young has announced that it would be impossible for him to remain as president as he was during the former reunion, and Major Leathers was chosen. He took the matter under advisement and as it is probable that a director general to undertake the detail work will be elected Major Leathers' acceptance is regarded as practically settled.

JAP BUTCHERS

EFFORTS TO BE MADE TO PASS JAPANESE EXCLUSION BILL.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Fear that Japanese workmen may take the place of members of his union at work in the stock yards, has induced Michael Donnelly, president of the Butcher's Union, it is alleged, to begin a campaign for the passage of a Japanese exclusion bill.

NOTHING NEW

The Contest for Supremacy Still on at Henderson.

The Acting Manager Seems to Have Some With Him.

There have been no new developments in the controversy over the management of the new English theatre at Henderson, so far as known here. Manager English is still at Henderson, and according to a message from him last night he expects something definite will be done today.

Yesterday's Henderson Gleaner said: "There were few if any new developments yesterday in the controversy between James E. English and F. R. Hallam as to the management of the 'English' theatre. Each of these gentlemen spent a good deal of their time yesterday in consultation with their respective attorneys, who have most probably advised them not to talk on the matter in question."

"The management of the All Star minstrels, a home talent company, stated that Mr. English notified the company that if it wanted to give an exhibition at the 'English' tonight that they would have to make a new contract as the one with Hallam was not good. The management of the minstrel informs the Gleaner that Mr. English's notification would be disregarded, but of course, if enjoined, the performance would necessarily have to be called off. Whether or not they will be enjoined remains for today to bring forth."

"It is also understood that the orchestra people will stand by the Hallam contract."

"Each of the local papers was notified by Mr. English, as president of the English Theatre company, that it would not be responsible for any advertising that Mr. Hallam might insert."

HALLOWEEN GAMES.

(From Harper's Bazar.)

When the company finally assembled the usual Halloween games were played. Lighted candles set in a row we all essayed to blow out; the number left burning showed the number of years one must wait for the husband or wife desired. With hands held closely behind us we tried to bite off the bags of candy or bright apples hung by slender threads from chandeliers or doorways. These futile attempts created much amusement. Some of the bravest bobbed for apples; others, blindfolded struck frantically with slender rods at paper bags of chestnuts hung at a safe distance from other objects, the blind folded striker being turned about several times to make his ideas of location extremely vague. A very large pumpkin had letters carved all over its surface, and each guest, with a sharp-pointed dart, tried to spear a letter. The pumpkin, suspended by a cord, spun merrily, and few succeeded in fastening a dart in the letter, which, if speared, we were assured would form the initial of the name of the person we should wed.

These and many other seasonable tricks made the time pass quickly. A great sawdust pile, evidently baked in a dishpan, had many long strings, one for each guest; a horn was blown, and at the sound all pulled the strings and many tangles were the result. Disentangled, a whistle, horn or squeaker was found attached to each string, and when all were blown together the noise was astonishing. Some whistles had paper figures fastened to them, which were inflated by the blowing, showing gayly-colored figures of Dewey and other heroes.

SCOTT HARDWARE CO.

Just A Little Reminder.

Just now you find your old shovel and tongs gone, or probably you need several ash pans, or fenders for your grates. Or, is it the windows are rattling and the wind whistling through the openings at the sides? Or the lock on the door is broken and it won't stay shut, or the damper in the stove all wrong—are any of the little annoyances of the household worrying you? If so let us play the good Samaritan.

We have lots of shovels and tongs. And that fire place will look so cozy with a new fender adorning it. We have some weather strips that put a quietus on the whistling and in-rushing wind, and we are looking for doors with broken locks to "lock" them right. We will take the damper off that stove and make its disposition bright and sunny—a good warmer.

Unburden such woes on us. We like them.
